Family Services Ottawa Brings Together Ottawa Leaders to Strengthen Families

(Ottawa October 28th 2015) In celebration of its 100th Anniversary, Family Services Ottawa's is holding Music on a Mission bringing together over 500 community, political and corporate leaders to help raise funds to support Ottawa families.

One of Ottawa's oldest and most vital registered charities, Family Services Ottawa (FSO) provides a wide range of accessible counselling services, and educational and supportive programs for children, adults, and families in all their forms.

"The demands of our community are greater than ever, and the support of our generous donors helps us to continue to collaborate with community partners to offer counselling and support services to anybody in Ottawa who needs it." Kathryn A. Hill, Executive Director. "Together, we are building an Ottawa where families and individuals are strong and resilient by providing a safe place for people to get the help they need."

Music on a Mission is taking place on Friday, October 30, 2015, at St. Anthony's Soccer Club (523 St. Anthony Street, in the heart of Little Italy), from 6:00 – 11:00 PM.
