MUSIC ON A MISSION
FAMILY SERVICES OTTAWA HOSTS ANNUAL MUSIC TRIVIA FUNDRAISER

Stop! Quick! Name the Canadian Grammy and Juno award winner who founded the Lilith Fair tours, which showcases female musical artists.

Whether or not you know the answer to this question, Family Services Ottawa (FSO) invites you to Music on a Mission, a music trivia fundraising event taking place at Tudor Hall on Friday, October 27th.

Music on a Mission is Family Services Ottawa's single, most-important fundraiser. One of Ottawa's most vital charities, Family Services Ottawa has been delivering accessible counselling services and education and supportive programs to the Ottawa community for over one hundred years.

Proceeds from Music on a Mission will help Family Services Ottawa deliver programs such as "Friends for Life", an anxiety prevention program for children, and "Parenting through High-Conflict Separation and Divorce" that teaches coping skills to help parents during a time of upheaval.

Over 600 music and trivia fans, community leaders, volunteers and FSO supporters are expected to attend the annual fundraiser that challenges participants to name artists, songs, movies, jingles and TV shows from a variety of musical genres. Tickets are still available for the spectacular event that also includes a pizza dinner, silent auction, bake sale and raffle draw. There is something for everyone!
